COVER PAGE

MRS MILTON H. TAYLOR, born in Pittsburgh, Pa., daughter of Mr and Mrs Lewis B. Dorcas of that city, is a product of Duquesne University and graduate of Duff's Iron City Business College, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The day after Xmas in 1948 she was wed to Milton H. Taylor, one of Newark's most progressive and enterprising young men.

Lushia, as she was christened, by her friends is termed "luscious" because of her eye-charming appeal, her engaging smile, and warm outgoing personality.

She is President of The Moles Inc., New York Chapter; a member of The Pittsburghers, and equally fashionable group, and of the local chapter Alpha Phi Alpha Auxiliary Wives.

Though definitely not impervious to luxurious living, Lushia is a lover of outdoor life, as seen on our cover, indulging in one of her favorite pursuits each summer with husband Milton at Martha's Vineyard and Oak Bluffs.

A wide horizon, a bright, keen perspective of life, love of people are Alma's attributes, perhaps gleaned during earlier days, when she was the toast of the Eastern seaboard in and around Atlantic City, Philadelphia and the capitol, delighting the hearts of many with her dazzling art, as professional dancer, and performing in summer stock.

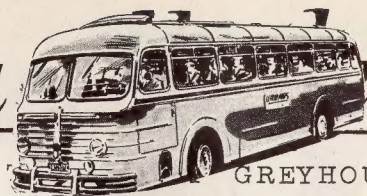

Forsaking the bright lights for less exciting, but equally gratifying life, she returned to the "Hilltop" city, where she had been reared, to work actively in Wallace Chapel, until in 1950 she married Carter C. Pinkman, scion of one of North Jersey's most notable families, when she transferred membership to her husband's church, Calvary Baptist, in Morristown, Rev James Coleman the pastor, where she is equally active.

She is also a member of the Minks, The Morris County National Council of Negro Women, Inc., and twice Past Matron of her local Order Of Eastern Stars, P. H. A.

EVENTS and AFFAIRS

BOWLING STRIKES GALORE

History was made when the Metropolitan Senates were hosts to the Annual National Bowling Tournament at Palladium Bowling Alleys, Orange N. J. April 27th, 28th, 29th.

The affair was a tremendous success, drawing participants from all over the country. There was color, pageantry and sterling performances, with strikes galore.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE CONCERT

The Women's League of N. J. Mrs Gwen Bailey of Madison, President, presented one of their previous year's scholarship awardees, Miss Gloria Foster, in concert at Newark YM-YWCA when they held "Coffee Hour" in the early Spring.

Miss Foster's magnificent voice drew a large attendance, making it possible for the League to continue their dedicated purpose, award of scholarships annually to deserving students.

Featured with Miss Foster was Miss Carmen Godfrey, student of the Carlotta Dance School, in ballet and toe dance performance.

NATIONAL JR. LEAGUE FROLIC

The Essex County Chapter of National Junior League, Inc., President Miss Edythe Sydnor, offering as piece de resistance to dance lovers the rhythmic music of Johnnie Coles May 4th packed Robinhood Room of Irvington House in their Spring Frolic.

Other officers and members are Millie Minfee, Vice president, Leslier Williams, Cor. Secy., Theresa Curry Rec. secy., Geraldine Zellers, Treas.

Also Jean Fitzgerald, Fin. sec., Lavinia Brown, Parliamentarian, the historian Catherine Campbell.

Also Barbara Burr, Isabella DeLoatch, Dorothy Dowdye, Barbara Farrell, Jeannette Fouche, Constance Garrettson, Maxie Hardman, Erlene Holmes and Ida Green.

In May they welcomed new member Mrs Elizabeth Humphrey.

JOINS BENEDICTS

HURD

The Cranford High School of New Jersey, recently lost one of its most effective and capable instructors when James S. Avery, Plainfield N. J., resigned as social studies teacher and coach to accept a position with the Public Relations department of Esso Standard Oil Company.

Mr Avery recently named the "Young Man of the Year" by the Cranford-Kenilworth Chapter, Jr. Chamber of Commerce, was advisor of the Student Council at the high school as well as head of its citizenship program. He coached the freshman track team, and previously served as the coach of the jayvee football, and basketball teams.

He joins Esso Standard as public relations representative July 1st. He majored in history at Columbia University, where he earned both his bachelor's and master's degree. In his new position he will work chiefly in educational and civic fields. He was recently elected a member of Board of Mental Hygiene Clinic of Union County.

Calvin J. Hurd, Esq., son of Mrs MaDora L. Hurd, Elizabeth, N.J. and the late William H. Hurd, Sr., will enter the Benedict's fold on July 22d when his marriage to comely Miss Thelma A. Conley of Columbus, Ohio (see story and picture on page 29).

Mr Hurd, a graduate of Rutgers University School of Law, was admitted to practice law in New Jersey in 1954, and also to practice before the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey.

He is active in many civic, social, and fraternal groups.

SCHOLARSHIP DANCE "TOPS"

BETHANY LODGE #31 F. & A. M. Prince Hall Affiliate, true to their promise "tops of the season" in annual Scholarship Dance at the Irvington House, April 21st, gave their guests a memorable night.

QUEENS FOR A NIGHT

THE PROGRESSIVE BEAUTICIANS April 21st augmented their colossal Fashion show and Hairstyle, featuring "Queens" with the young Queens, as well as princesses of the "small fry" category, parading down the runway.

Among the models were Misses Catherine Jones, Esther McKellar, Georgianna Godwin, Shirley Clark, Dolores Kornegay, Bernadine Taylor, Dorothy McKellar, and scintillating Charlene "Cookie" Mitchell, Marietta Johnson. With the grace and the poise of their older sisters were Wilma Ann Johnson, Regina Blue, Carol Lee, Allie McKellar, Emma Wiggins, Velma Neal, Janice Martin.

Millinery and original accessory creations were modelled by Mrs. Sadie Veney. Fred Anderson of the Dillard's Charm Shop, Anita Johnson, and May Pearson of Newark were the prize winners of furs from Vernon Furriers. The inimitable Reese LaRue in dance, the mellifluous notes of Jimmie Powell and his N. Y. ork, and the narrating of Sally Cooke Young of CLUB WORLD magazine, completed a fine show.

THE UNITED MASTER BARBER ASSN., Clarence Oliver, President drew a gay crowd at their dance, May 26th at Slovak Sokol Hall, Newark.

First and second rows -AT BETHANY LODGE Scholarship Dance, Guests and Committee members. Third and fourth rows -PROGRESSIVE BEAUTICIANS officers and members. Sadie Veney, millinery designer, Janice Martin, entertained with sparkling song and dance. Pretty young Queens on parade. John Thomas, Director Masonic PHA Beauty Contest. Inset- Hollis W. Plinton, outstanding Fraternal leader of Elksdom.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA SORORITY, Beta Alpha Omega Chapter, Basileus Ella S. Rainey, and Gamma Zeta Chapter, Basileus Pat Brown, were hostesses to 25th North Atlantic Regional Conference Alpha Kappa Alpha on April 27, 28, 29th, with business sessions at Newark State Teachers College.

At the same time the Eastern Regional Conference Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity met in Newark, with their headquarters at Military Park Hotel, Alpha Alpha Lambda Chapter, hosts, Thomas Flagg, President.

Although the two organizations are separate entities, a true spirit of sisterly and brotherly love prevailed to the extent many of the social affairs were held jointly.

Highlights of the weekend were AKA open meeting at Newark State Teachers College, with many foreign dignitaries and students on the platform. Mesdames Tina Bohannon and Hortense Tate, chairladies. A closed party was later held at King Hiram Craftsmen's Hall, Alpha Phi Alpha Brothers, AKA Sisters, adding a few special friends to the invited list of guests.

Chesloff Furriers, Newark, N. J. tossed a fabulous cocktail party for the visitors, under the auspices of Alpha Alpha Lambda Auxiliary, Mrs. Mabel Robinson, Madison, N. J., President, her co-chairman for the affair was Mrs. Lillian Alexander, ably assisted by all other Auxiliary members.

The AKA Banquet was chaired by Sorors Frances M. Gregory and Marjorie S. Palmer, held at Irvington House Robin Hood Room. Guests of honor were National Founders, two living sorors Joanna B. Shields, and Margaret Flagg Holmes. Mrs. Pauline S. Puryear was guest speaker. Outgoing Regional Director Margaret P. Parker was presented with an elaborate silver candelabra-dish set, and Emma B. Brinkley, present Regional Director, received a jewel studded French purse. Presentations of souvenir plates bearing AKA crest, and the words: "25th Annual Regional AKA Conference, Newark, N. J." to each of the sorors at the banquet.

Following the banquet sorors met their escorts and went upstairs to the Formal "Balle des Fleurs", chaired by Soror Olyve Henderson and Brother Jerry Martin, jointly given by AKA and Alpha Phi Alpha.

Decorations of huge colorful butterflies and moths, garlands upon garlands of gaily festooned flowers and ivy leaves, while in center of the ballroom a ivy and flower covered trellis stood, wherein nestled a fountain spouting Lanvin's "Arpege", creating an enchanted fairyland setting for an unforgettable evening. AKA sorors were distinguished by wristles of ivy leaves, and all women guests of Alpha men received orchids flown in from Hawaii.

The public shared in the festivities at the close of the sessions when Alpha Phi Alpha held its open meeting, Sunday, April 29th at St. James AME church, Newark, at which time E. Frederick Morrow, Administrative Assistant of Special Projects in the White House, was guest speaker. Mr. Morrow was presented with a plaque by his Alpha Brothers for his outstanding contributions in the field of human relations.

Prince Hall F&AM triples the entertainment usually offered to its large following, when the Lodges will present a three-day celebration starting with ANNUAL TALENT and BEAUTY CONTEST, Friday July 13th, Arts High School, Newark, N. J.

On Saturday, July 14th the general public, as well as the Press are invited to a Public Relations Forum to be held at the Masonic Temple, 188 Belmont Avenue, Newark, commencing at 10 A. M. At 1 P. M., Saturday, a spectacular parade, featuring the beauty contestants, winners, runners up, and the entire aggregation, with the added attraction of all types of beautiful floats designed to captivate grownups as well as youngsters will take the spotlight.

Sunday, July 15th the entire Order, with their families and friends will converge on Sellinger's Grove in Union, N. J. for one of the gayest picnics of the season. The public is invited to participate to the fullest in the three day festivities. Dave Jones is Chairman.

ORANGE STUDENT IN GRADUATION CONCERT

CHARLES WARREN, Jr., son of Mr and Mrs Charles Warren, Sr. of Orange, N. J., rendered his graduation, class of June '56, Concert at Heidelberg College, Tiffin, Ohio before a sizeable gathering.

Encore after encore attested to the recognition of the audience's appreciation for his especial flair, his keen insight, his feeling for the original melodic patterns, his sensitivity and brilliance, as well as lively dash and abandon as he rendered selections from Bach Prelude, the Beethoven Sonata, the lyrical music of Debussy and Gershwin.

Returning to his home with his parents, who attended the graduation young Warren looks forward to teaching music with the hope of imbuing his pupils with his same brilliant performances.

THE PALS SOCIAL CLUB held its annual Spring dance in April with Continental Ballroom, Newark, scene of gaiety. Moses Garland and his orchestra furnishing dance rhythm.

Aside from the many individual guests, there was representation in groups of many of the leading social clubs, among whom were the entire membership of the Modernettes.

THE RODARIANS called their April 29th affair a "Printemps" soiree, to give it that gay and festive air of French origin, held in the Robin Hood Room of the Irvington House. To the rhythmic tunes of The Barons the guests spent an enjoyable afternoon, 5 to 10 P. M.

THE 12 STAR CLUB gave quite a successful Spring Dance, May 5th at Masonic Temple Blue Mirror, Belmont Avenue, Newark, where they entertained a host of friends in their usual elegant manner. Each member easily distinguished from guests by beautiful corsages enhancing their glamorous evening gowns.

THE WARRIORS first dance of the season, April 21st was a gay and happy occasion at Masonic Temple Blue Mirror Room, Newark, N. J. A good time was had by everyone to the music of maestro Eddie Brown.

CLUB FIDELIS NATAL

DINNER PARTY

Club Fidelis made it a dinner party at the beautifully appointed Hotel Scott, Newark, celebrating the birthdays of members Lucille Sinclair, President, and Gertrude Harper, at the regular meeting on Sunday, May 13th.

TWEEDSMEN FEATURE TWO ORKS

The Tweedsmen attracted their usual large and enthusiastic group at Terrace Ballroom. The batons of two of Newark's favorite bands, Billy Anderson and Duke Anderson, beat out the rhythm for the dancing feet of the merry crowd on May 27th.

NAPE FROLIC

OUTSTANDING PERSONALITIES

ALBERT A. COOK

Approaching the Garden State Parkway through Bloomfield, N. J., one notices a large sign reading "Essex County Carpet Cleaning Co." This is the establishment of Albert A. Cook founded in 1910.

A native of Charlotte Court House, Va., Mr. Cook has been a resident of northern New Jersey since 1903, and now resides in Montclair, N. J. Clear penetrating eyes, ready smile, genteel, soft spoken and courteous manner are among the attributes, Mr Cook possesses.

A pioneer in modern rug cleaning practices, his company is the oldest firm of its kind in the State under one continuous management.

Keen vision, acute business acumen, conscientiousness and perseverance have brought Albert Cook to a lofty pinnacle in the business field and community. The building of the Lincoln Garden Apartment in Montclair, one of the first undertakings of a man of color in this area, was indicative of a skillful navigator charting a good course.

Mr Cook works too long and too hard for many hobbies to occupy his time. However, he participates on the Board of Friendly Neighborhood Community House, Newark, and on Board of Montclair YMCA for 25 years, attesting to his civic mindedness. He is married to the former Miss Helen Wright, and is the father of two daughters, Grace and Ruth.

YOUTH ACTIVITIES

YOUTH AIDS CEREBRAL PALSY

In an unobtrusive, but very effective manner some 125 teen-agers in Montclair, N. J., under guidance and organization of Mrs. Peggy Rice, wife of Dr. Robert Rice, raised a sizeable fund for Cerebral Palsy.

Called upon early in December 1955 to canvass a community of four thousand persons, Mrs. Rice realized the herculean task could not be accomplished with any success, single handed.

She sought help of students in the Montclair schools, named eight as captains to man the endeavor in house to house canvas, phone and personal contacts; they raised approximately $1000.00, contributed by all races, as well as from churches of all faiths.

PANTRY AID TO AGED

The Senatorians, civic minded teen-agers, already conscious of responsibilities of good citizens, have organized for the purpose of making contributions, either in services, or deeds to worthy causes, as well as staging dances, parties, outings, etc. for the youngsters on their age level.

Their latest civic endeavor a contribution of 115 cans of food to the Montclair Home for the Aged.

The President of this enterprising and personable group of young 'uns, who by their present deeds are destined for future leadership is John Davis, Secretary Carolyn Jones; the Treasurer Robert Davis. Other members Scott Young, Jr., Ralph Holt, Jr., Mildred Davis, Nathaniel Williams, Richard Sweeney, Barbara Rudd, Sidney Tyree, Peggy Dodson, and Sheila Powell.

STAGE FASHIONS FOR FREEDOM

The Youth Council of NAACP, Oranges and Maplewood, under advisement of dynamic Mrs. Samuel A. Williams of East Orange, N. J., on Sunday, April 15th made concerted effort to raise funds for NAACP Fight for Freedom Fund, by staging a show of fashionable attire at the Oakwood Ave., YWCA, Orange, N. J.

Among the young men, young women, and tiny tots, modelling were Misses Kae Thompson, director and organizer of Metropolitan Fashion Models, Barbara Bryant, Shirley Milteer, Doreen & Marilyn Washington, Mildred & Yolanda Simpkins, Gwendolyn Gwen, Mark Bryant, Kenny Green, (Cont'd on page 42

CONVERSATION PIECE

BY - JEAN DIXON

NEVER would I have dreamed I'd be writing my first column in my present position--flat on back in bed.

JUST goes to show one never knows when the old "ticker" will get on off-time beat, and proves something else--one needs to call a halt somewhere along the line. Being a housewife, mother, Government Girl, night school student, and doing ever so often a bit of socializing-- floors even one as disgustingly healthy as yours truly.

NOW down to business, trusting this bit of chit-chat will be accepted as an additional bit of pleasure derived from an already interesting magazine.

NORTH JERSEY UNIT of the Business & Professional Women in April sponsored annual Fashion and Card Party--weather well ordered in advance--came thro per specifications--beautiful Sat. aft.

AROUND KRESGE'S department store where affair was held, it looked like a "Sepia beauty Parade" The patrons virtually stopped traffic in that area--the likes of luscious fur stoles, capes and scarves----from a Mink to a Mouton--one has never in a long time seen.

ETHEL MOORE opened the affair, looking very elegant, introducing Kresge's fashion narrator, who presented summer cottons from the better dress department.

CARD PLAYING Began, don't overlook our "real gone" Scrabble (the intelligentsia's game) played at corner table by Marie Jones, Kaye Hynes and yours truly. Individual table prizes were gifts made by the Greystone Park patients. A commendable charitable gesture on part of B&P.

DARE I STICK my neck out at this time mentioning a few of many we felt were special eye treat, with apologies to those I fail to mention. Juanita Mulford, Evelyn Inge bedecked in Minks, should indeed have been models for the aft. Beautiful array of guests' hats left us a bit breathless. Helen Lee, Pearl Moore, Anna Jones, Bernice Bernard, Effie Marshall, Laura Longshore, Drucilla Ashe, Rebecca Jackson, Marie Goode, Peggy Place, Mary Whittle, Sally Parks, and Margaret Vaughan (Cont'd on pg 43)

GRADUATION

Synonymous with June is Graduation. Surely an important step in the lives of our youth.

More important is the action taken now by the many youngsters as they face their brave new world.

There can be no minimizing the importance of PREPAREDNESS in the increasingly competitive fields of endeavor. This challenge they are accepting, as indicated in our picture story of graduates; each plans to continue his education towards goals that call for preparedness.

Headlines scream the news of bad things our boys and girls do, but little mention is made of the bright side. We do not share the negative pessimism. Indeed, we see much good evidence that confirms our faith in the youth of today. Thus, WE SALUTE THE GRADUATES of 1956, and wish them God's Speed along their chartered courses.

WITH THE TEACHERS

MILDRED H. WATSON, Montclair, N. J., teaches at Franklin No. 3 elementary Passaic, N. J., her charges the very "young-uns" 1st graders. Using progressive methods in classes --visual aids--movies, using pets in her classes (canaries, bunnies, kittens and canines), she is meeting with tremendous success with her intensive love, for children and people.

The inspiring example which Mrs Watson is setting should give great comfort to those women who have reached 39. Mrs Watson taught in her younger years, then left teaching to raise a family, and only after her son had reached maturity did she re-enter the teaching field.

Her tangible horizon is very wide, it includes extensive work with color movies, and a great yen for traveling. Indeed, she has visited every State in the Union, but three.

Her Alma Maters Livingston College, Paterson State Teachers; is now working towards her master's at Columbia. She is married to Solomon Watson, Masonic fraternal leader.

WITH THE TEACHERS

MABEL HOLMES, although native Virginian, has spent the greater portion of her life in New Jersey having attended elementary and high schools in Elizabeth, N. J.

The City of her choice attesting to its pride in her, and recognition of her capabilities, appointed her as Principal to Continental School No. 3 in Elizabeth where she is now serving her 7th year.

Graduate of Newark State Teachers College, received her bachelor's and master's at New York University, as well as her 6 years trainee course. As Principal she governs a student body ranging from kindergarten through 8th grade. She is a member of Shiloh Baptist Church, the daughter of Mrs Mildred Holmes, and makes her home with her mother.

CUPID OUTRACED

Mr and Mrs Larrie Flakes, of Newark, N. J., advise the announcement of their daughter Marilyn's engagement is in error, since she is still a student at Julliard Conservatory of Music, and it is their desire that she continue her studies.

News

Mr and Mrs William Ernest Suitt celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary with 150 guests at a dinner party at Canary Cottage in Florham Park, N. J., Saturday evening, May 12th, tendered by the children of their family.

Rev. Jonathan Brown, pastor of First Baptist, Madison reunited the couple in a ceremony, while John A. Huggs, at the piano, Miss Berenice Johanson, Miss Capitola Dickerson as soloists, furnished music.

The Suitts were wed May 13th 1906 by the late Rev James Churchman, at which time Miss Amanda Markham and Mr Leonard Neville were attendants. Madison, N. J. has been there home all these years, he serving his community as a contractor and builder, and she active in the community and church, as organist of First Baptist 50 years.

Family present were sons, E. Vincent, Industrial Secretary, Buffalo, N. Y. Urban League, his wife and three children; Harry R., real estate and insurance salesman and wife Rebecca, of East Orange; Lester M. a teacher, living at home with his parents.

In late May, Mrs & Mrs Theodore Gayle, Newark, celebrated their 15th.

August 28th will be happy 16th in the home of Harold and Margaret E. Gregory of Montclair, N. J.

FASHIONS FOR SUMMER

THE PANTS STORY

By - JOHNNIE McCALL
(MICHELLE CHARM SCHOOL)

The "Ivy League" tapered pants, toreodors, bermuda shorts, and the short shorts are some of the popular pants for m'lady for spring and the summer on display at your favorite shop. Available in cotton twill and other easy to care for fabrics, hues from khaki to an exciting turquoise

The tapered pants sometimes called the frontier pants are slim from hips to ankles. Toreodors are adapted from the matador costume and are the tapered pants that fall slightly below the knee with, or without slits at the calf.

Variations of the tapered pants are fancy pants, available in the knee length or longer in harlequin design or bold prints. Bermuda shorts are the man-tailored knee length shorts adapted from our British cousins.

The 'short'shorts are briefest of all, and may be cuffed or plain.

"THE DARK EYE OF AFRICA" -By Laurens Van Der Post. 217 pp. Wm Morrow & Company - $3.00

By -JAMES A. WARE

This is a written version of a talk which Mr. Van Der Post has given on many occasions in Europe and England, with Africa as the principle focal point, concerning world racial tension. Most of his talk is centered on Africa his birth place and home.

He establishes the fallacy of the super race as it has lived in the minds of the Jews, Germans and now coming into the minds of the South Africans and their counterpart Southern U. S. A.

He discovers a new concept of time and reduces the importance of its dimensional value. Mr Van Der Post feels that much of man's unrest results from a search for his true destiny and purpose in life.

One of the most challenging points of discussion, is the cause of Mau-Mau outbursts in Kenya. He approaches the cause from a new aspect --the decline of true Christianity and replacing of a pagan religion with a form of Christianity that is not practiced as it is professed.

"The Dark Eye" is revealed as the failure of one race to look the other in the eye as equals." The Dark Eye of Africa is one of the most startling and informative books about the world racial question.

Mr Van Der Post accepts the failure of his race and their unjust persecution of the African people. However, he offers a level of understanding which will permit both races to meet and reconcile their differences. It is one of the most important books ever published.

THE THEATER

"MR WONDERFUL"

Sammy Davis, Jr - Olga James

Worth while catching, if but to see the extensive repertoire of the inimitable Sammy. He receives good support from the pretty Olga James Jack Carter, Pete Marshall, Chita Rievera. The story is skimpy, but Sammy pulls out all of the stops on his singing, dancing and acting caliope.

THE MOST HAPPY FELLA

A worthy successor to great musicals that have appeared on Broadway. The large cast starring Phil Weede, Jo Sullivan, and a superb talent from the singing, dancing ensemble provide excellent entertainment.

MOVIES

THE MAN WHO KNEW TOO MUCH

Starring James Stewart and Doris Day. Melodrama with excitement and suspense, packing a pretty lethal wallop. Here we have a typical Hitchcock formula: mounting tension, continuing suspense, and a series of climaxes that culminate into an exciting mystery thriller.

FRATERNALLY SPEAKING

JAMES W. KENNAMON
State Director Public Relations of
I. B. P. O. Elks of World

I deem it a pleasure and honor to lend my weight to such a fine publication as Club World, published by my good friends Scott and Sally Young dedicated to keeping the public informed of all club activities, regardless of how great or how small.

If you care to keep your Lodge or Temple before the public, then shoot the works, I can be reached at either VA Hospital, Ward 6B, East Orange, N. J., 81 Parkhurst Street Newark, N. J., or Club World, P. O. Box 461, East Orange, N. J.

Thanks to all for their kindness during my confinement at the hospital. This kindness will never be forgotten by me or my sweet wife called by her friends "Little Dot", but to me she is "Big Dot". When the doctors were doubtful, she held on to hope and never gave up.

Daughters don't feel slighted because you were not listed in Club World Directory, the information is now available and will appear in our next issue.

June 16th all roads will lead to Asbury Park, N. J., and the State confab, which looks like a lively one, so many candidates in the field for the State Presidency.

The true friendship of Elkdome and the 3rd principal of our great Order (Brotherly Love) was exemplified recently when 4th floor patient at VA Hospital, E. O., Lewis Parham received paid up card, and sizeable check from his Pride of Jersey #22 Lodge, Jersey City. He sends thanks and hopes to be with the boys soon.

I also received card of paid up membership in Veterans Affairs Committee of which I am now a life member, and the first to hold such.

The Vets Affairs Committee is doing a bang-up free service for all veterans and their dependents, as well. John Brown, Pride of Newark Lodge is State Director, Dr. Dolly Anderson, Philadelphia, is Grand Commissioner. Why not join up.

To be sure of your magazine, Club World, why not order in advance by using the handy coupon found on the pages of this issue, or by directing your order to me at any of the three addresses listed above.

FRATERNAL ACTIVITIES

BY - VERGEST BAILEY

Pride of Newark Lodge No. 93 I. B. P. O. E. of W., March 31st closed out a successful 3 nights bazaar with awards of a 1956 portable television to Henry C. Wynn, of Asbury Park, N. ## VETERAN ACTIVITIES

BY - FRANKLIN A. BANKS,

WELL THE VETS' have had a busy time since last we met. Ruffner Lee Chapter No. 75, DAV, newest vet organization in this area, are now in process of setting up an Auxiliary made up of wives, sisters, daughters and widows of disabled veterans.

THEY ALSO held a concert at St. Philip's Parish House, on Sunday May 27th, featuring N. J. State Elk's Choir; a treat the whole family enjoyed.

PFC LEWIS L. LACKLAND Pos made citizens of Orange cognizant of its presence, revealing they plan to open a community center in the city of East Orange. Sorry I missed their installation, but next issue will introduce their new officers. Commander this year will be Louis E. Greene, and the Ladies Auxiliary is piloted by Doris J. Lackland.

GUYTON CALLAHAN Post 152 American Legion, James Churchman Jr., Commander, did it again on April 28th with an affair that will linger in the mind with other pleasant thoughts a long time. Bouquets to committee members for sterling and untiring efforts.

Sunday, May 20th Guyton-Callahan held post memorial services at Nicholas A. M. E. Church in Newark, which was well attended. May 30 they held annual memorial services with placing a wreath on the "Archie Callahan" monument in Douglas-Harrison park, then marching downtown in the memorial day parade.

THE "VETS SOCIAL CLUB" of Newark, one of our newer clubs, four years old, have limited social activities to just among other vets' groups. Meetings are discontinued during the summer, but in the Fall be on lookout for a very fine October dance, an extraordinary floor show featured.

Top sgt is calling so - Comanah---Fall out!!!

PIONEER DEN MOTHERS

Mrs Clara St. John, Newark, venerable octogenarian, and early settler in New Jersey. As far back as 1938 did yeoman work as a den mother for affiliation #67, Friendly Neighborhood House, Newark. One of the most beloved personalities in the State, her contributions toward molding the youth with whom she has worked have been tremendous.

She is a member of one of New Jersey's outstanding families, the mother of Mrs Gladys Churchman and grandmother of James Churchman, Jr., Newark mortician and the Commander of Guyton Callahan VFW Post.

Mrs Olive Polk served with Mrs St. John for ten years at the Neighborhood House, Newark. Imbued with strength of character, civic consciousness and outstanding leadership qualities, was in the vanguard in the Adult Scout movement in this area. Indeed her Pack was the first Colored Pack in the Robert Treat Council.

Her activities with her group were many, including managing her team in a Little Baseball League.

Mrs Viola McCoullough molded from the same fabric of public spiritedness and unselfish devotion to participation in the Scout movement as Mrs St. John and Mrs Pope.

She too was one of the pioneer and outstanding den mothers serving #67, Neighborhood House, Newark.

SCOUT CALVACADE THRILLING

Calvacade of Scouting, on May 26th at Newark City Stadium, ran the gamut of all the features of Scouting giving the interested spectators quite a thrill. Admission was free.

HALCYON YEARS REVIVED IN DELTA SWEETHEART FORMAL

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the Kappa Sigma and Delta Zeta Chapters, after successful culmination of the Annual Jabberwock, in appreciation to the fine support of their patrons "bent backwards" with tossing of a lush "Sweethearts" Formal at Hotel Robert Treat, Newark, the 1st of June.

Reviving the halcyon years of elegant formals, dance programs were in evidence, listing "Silk & Satin Serenade", "Swing Tune", "The Latin Quarter", and the grand finale, medley of tunes "Prelude to Dreamland" sending the guests home to dream of the Deltas, with pleasure. Dorothy Herbert, Kappa President, Constance Neblett, Delta Zeta Pres., Dorothy Gould, Kappa Vice Pres., and Dianne Burnett, Delta Zeta, Vice Pres.

MRS CLUB GAY FORMAL

The socially prominent members of Club MRS as in the past several years held their Annual Spring Formal, with the only change the setting. Over the years they have carried their guests to Shady Rest Country Club, this year on May 26th, the guests tripped light fantastic at the UAW Union Hall, Linden, N. J.

CLUB BRIEFS

ESSEX COUNTY CHAPTER NATIONAL JUNIOR LEAGUE, INC. organized April 1950 as part of the National, which was organized in the city of Chicago in 1933, composed of young women, volunteering services to foster civic, cultural and social advancement in their communities.

Mrs Norma Holcombe McCain set up the Essex County group. The work of the League has been herculean, sponsoring distribution of the holiday dinners (Thanksgiving and Xmas) to needy families, toys, clothing, and even into foreign soil, such as Korea, to give aid.

Definitely a WORK GROUP-- NOT SOCIAL--officers and member roster consists of Edythe Sydnor, the President, Millie Minfee, Vice, Theresa Curry, rec. secy, Leslie Williams, cor. secy, Geraldine Zellers, the Treas. Jean Fitzgerald, fin. secy., Lavinia Brown, Parliamentarian, Catherine Campbell, Historian, Barbara Burr, Civic, Leslie Williams, the Fine Arts Chr., and members Isabella DeLoatch, Dorothy Dowdy, Constance Garretson, Ida Green, Erlene Holmes.

NEWARK SPECIAL POLICE BENEVOLENT ASSN., a group of the City's young men, who because of an ever watchful interest in their community for its development, are selected to serve as auxiliaries to the regular Police force, in stations such as Public Dances, and various niteries to maintain the peace.

TRAVELLERS

Attractive Jean Granger, Newark, N. J., former VA Social Worker and now with the Child Welfare Agency of East Orange, surprised her many friends with postal cards sent from sunny Haiti, where she flew during chilly April, drank in sights of beauty, absorbed the brilliant sun and scenic atmosphere, and had a wonderful three weeks.
